(From the Baltimore American, ]

We have long ago expressed the conviction that alevery in this country is doorned; and the advent of this proclamation we can escreelly consider, under the effective three, as has testing its rate. Perfectly mad as the estion: States were in challenging a condition for its extension, the ferocious spirit they have shown in the fight his, little by little, lost them the sympatics of the world at large; and until left alone as its especial champions, and inadequate to sustain a much longer strength, it would have periabed, ultimately, whether the executive had moved in the matter in the way he has seen fit to do or not.

And as to its effects upon the institution in the torder States, it is not at all problematical. If Virginia or North Carolina become free States of the proclamation, the exemption resulting into Maryland is of no precified value whatever. With free States are.

Begarding Mr. Lincoln's proclamation I will say, that it he means to free the sieves or robels in arms, and pay loyal men for them, and for the sieves or lovels in arms, and pay loyal men for them, and for the means for it, out and out. [En insisted as plauses.] I think the proclamation well timed and tottunate at this moment. If it had been made a month or six weeks later, the robel would have made a proposition themselves to England to take their negroes and cotolity them, and I thank God that Old Abs has to ken the starch out of them. (Cheers.)

We continue our extracts from the opinions of the press upon the president's emancips ton proclamation:

There can be no state paper imagined mor noble than one which carries substantial literative in millions of alayes. It is that vermoral grandeur and sublime importance which makes us jesious of anything which threatens is certainty or diminished its morapower.

We now set that secession being the prenaiere, emancipation must be the logical conclusion.

That proclamation is the drawing of a sword that can never be sheathed again. The very existence of the loyal States will now depend upon the efforcement of this decree. Slavery is the heart or the Soule. The South will forgive everything else; but a cerious and avoved determination to subvert that will never be forgiven. We can imagine how a party might have sprung up in the North, byand-by, that would easy to the South, only a fraction of radicals ever meant to subvert slavery; the loyal masses respected your rights. Pilate and H-rod might have become thierds sgam, if only Christ or his poor were on the cross!

SOLDIERS' DINNER—A number of patriotic ladies have decided to give the soldiers at the Marine Hospital a dinner, to come off on Friday next, at 4 o'clock p. m. Some of these men have seen hard fighting in several battles, and will carry the marks of the same to their graves; and they are all worthy of the token of respect about to be shown them by the ladies. Any one willing to unite in this pleasant little affair, can do so by bringing what they choose to furnish for the occasion. The sileged application of Gen. Sigel to be

THE ALLEGED BOUNTY FRAUDS.—The case of Capt. R. C. Kelly and Lieut. Pasemey, charged with obtaining bounty money under false pretences, the particulars of which were given in the TRIBUNK of yesterday, was called for a hearing jesterday afternoon before Justice Milikken, but owing to the non-appearance of witnesses, was postponed until this afternoon at one o'clock. The case, according to the showing of the defendants, is that Lieut. Pisceney and some other officers obtained bounties from the War Committee and gave them to men who enlisted after the time nasigned, justifying themselves upon the grounds that the men to whom they legitimately belonged had deserted or otherwise sheconded. Capt. Kelly claims to have had nothing to so with the matter. The investi-

The Wathers.—September closed yesterday with caregories skirts, mindly strine, a moist, uppleasant body. We can hardly remember a day more fitted to engender bise devils. What with much rain, fog, high prices of fuel, careless expressmen, filthy gutters, an atter lack of anniahine, sticky postage stamps, fights on every stroet corner, drunken individuals by the scores, and other equally pleasant circumstances, the day aggregated sum total of miseries which would have formabled material enough for an extra volume of Lee Miserable. As we write, the busy hum of the street has ribsided, a solitary stooffall occasionally ja heard; while the rain is drop-cough to carry out his designs, instead of jroccasionally is heard; while the rain is drop-ping, the fog closing in, and dank mephitic vaporabres samingup from the unctuous con-whown us an alegant gold-headed came, and a beautiful ring, manufactured by Nowlan & Mellivains, the well known jewelers of this city, which are intended as a present to Capt. John Merker, pillot of the Forest Queen at the time the statest was made. At the first fire by the guerillas, Capt. Meeker what a struck by a bullet which penetrated his body just. Pellow the heart. Supposing blosself mortally wounded, he left the wheel and went jto the cabit. An examination of the wound by a surgeon showed it not to be mortal, although the ball had ledged inside of his body, whereupon the brave Cap sin returned immediately to his wheel, and very soon received mediately to his wheel, and very soon received where the public will now have an opportunity to judge of them in a different cityle. Anorism Bridge Wanten.—A bridge at Stake street is an imperstive necessity. The Council have expressed themselves ready to go alsead, provided the merchants will subscribe $10,000, to be added to the regular appropriation. They should not stand in the way of a much needed improvement.

EDATORIER OF THE REGIMENT.—The Irish Legion have adopted a Daughter of the Regiment mained Eliza Miller. The vivandiers is hefautated with her new calling, and has subtred upon it as a labor of love. She professes herself ready to share the fortunes of the Legion in any event.

The Paraiotic.—Mr. Ass Coho, for several years sendor member of the firm of Coho & Mumma, Mount Morris, Illicols, and who in his time has purchased large bills of goods of our merchants, is now in the city seeking employment. His money is all invested in Massive lands, and the war has stripped him of all available means. He offers his services as selemma, or in any capacity where he could with some or, in any capacity where he could with employment. A siged Demonstration.

The slieged application of Gen. Sigel to be relieved from his command, and the grievances he sets forth in the alleged letter of application to the War Department, have produced a profound sensation among the Gorman patricots of Chicage. For a long time past they have been dissatisfied at the treatment to which Sigel has been subjected, dating from his administration in Missouri, where he was stripped of his command by Gen. Halleck, and extending to the present time, when he finds himself again at the head of a small army, by no means proportionate to the services he might render in his location.

With the Germans, and in fact, with many Americans, but with the Germans especially, Gen. Sigel is an idol. They see in him as brave and skilful general, thoroughly schools of striking telling blows upon the rebellion, were he only allowed the opportunity. While they are in favor of all loyst generals, their of striking telling blows upon the rebellion, were he only allowed the opportunity. Nacmonas G. Eddy, or Ohio.—About three menths ago the above named man, aged about twenty-six, came to Chicago, (it is supposed) from Gleveland, Ohio. He was a ship caulker by trade, sober, industrious and greafly respected by his associates. He died of typhoid fever, a few days ago, and his fellow workmen, buried him. At the time of his death his was hoarding at the house of a Mrs. Cook, to Chicago avenue. By reason of the fact that he lay in a comatose state for about a week previous to his death, his friends were unable to learn the exact whereabouts of his relatives.
